FOREWORD

Meet The Wolfpack has been prepared this year with the idea of giving press, radio and other publicity mediums information concerning the 1950 North Carolina State football team. It contains a ready reference guide to players, coaches, schedule and other aspects of the football program at the institution. We hope that it will meet the requirements for which it is intended.

STOREY

We, at State, extend to members of press and radio a hearty welcome to visit our campus and see our football team in action. The new season finds us a bit better equipped to accomodate those of you who will desire to report our games in Riddick Stadium. We have completed repairs to our press box and now are able to offer three tiers of space, each protected from the weather. We shall be happy to make arrangements for wire service, pre-game lineups, numbers and any other information that you may require.

If you desire any information not contained in this booklet please do not hesitate to write, wire or call us. We can supply pictures either in mat form or on glossy prints of all members of the 1950 team. If you have any suggestions as to how we may improve our service to either newspapers or radio stations we will be most glad to give our fullest cooperation.

Inquiries for complimentary press and radio tickets will be given every consideration, but we must impress upon both newspaper and radio representatives that our supply is limited. Riddick Stadium has a seating capacity of less than 20,000. Our student body this year will number nearly 5,000 and alumni, faculty and staff members will fill another 5,000 seats. Less than 10,000 tickets will be available for public sale to each home game, thus we must limit our issuance of complimentary tickets accordingly. Please submit your requests in advance of each game and they will be given every consideration. We must also ask that only designated representatives of each newspaper and radio station make these requests.

THE CHANCELLOR OF N. C. STATE COLLEGE

COL. JOHN W. HARRELSON
B.E., M.E., LL.D.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE COLLEGE

By RUDOLPH PATE

North Carolina State College, one of America's great Land-Grant institutions, has reached its highest peak of service to the people of the State during the past few years and is currently expanding its physical plant to serve a greater number of Tar Heel citizens.

The College, a mammoth center of technological education and research, observed the 60th anniversary of its founding on October 3, 1949. It has grown from an humble beginning on October 3, 1889, to become one of the nation's giants in the field of technology.

With the aid of its foundations, the institution has been able to employ some of the country's top-ranking scientists and teachers to match the physical facilities as provided by funds appropriated by the General Assembly.

New schools and curricula have recently been added to provide unsurpassed educational opportunities for the State's youth. In addition to the vital teaching work, the College has moved ahead to spur the development of agriculture and industry in North Carolina. Its far-reaching experimental projects are opening new frontiers of economic progress and are the forerunners of higher living standards.

As a result, the College is receiving more and more recognition from the accreditation agencies—a factor which has lifted it to an eminent position among the colleges and universities of the United States.

Establishment of the institution was due largely to the militant efforts of Col. Leonidas L. Polk, hard-hitting editor of The Progressive Farmer; the Watauga Club; and the provisions of the Morrill Act enacted by the United States Congress in 1862.

The General Assembly of 1931, acting on the recommendation of Governor O. Max Gardner, a member of the State College Class of 1903, voted to consolidate North Carolina State College in Raleigh with the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill and the North Carolina College for women in Greensboro into the Consolidated University of North Carolina.

State College has grown from its one building in 1889—Holladay Hall—to a physical plant valued in excess of $12,000,000 today, with a building program which will nearly double the capacity of the school now in progress. The enrollment has advanced from the 72 students—who reported to President Alexander Q. Holladay during the first academic year—to approximately 5,000 today.

N. C. State has 51 buildings on its campus and owns 3,500 acres of land, including 650 in the campus tract and 2,850 in orchards and farms. In addition, it has access to 97,000 acres of woodlands used as outdoor forestry laboratories. Over 100,000 volumes are deposited in its library.

The teaching staff has jumped from President Holladay's original staff of 20 to approximately 440 today. Over 800 persons are employed on the campus.

The College's main divisions include the School of Agriculture and Forestry, the School of Design, the School of Engineering, the School of Education, the School of Textiles, the Graduate Division, the Division of Basic Studies, the Summer School, and the Department of Military Science and Tactics.

Chancellor J. W. Harrelson, the present chief administrative officer of the institution, has led the College to its greatest period of usefulness. The College and its allied agencies reach many thousands of North Carolina citizens annually with the varied teaching, research, and extension services.

Allied agencies with headquarters on the campus include the North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station, the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service, the United States Weather Bureau, the United States Bureau of Mines Regional Laboratories, the Division of Vocational Agriculture of the State Department of Public Instruction, and other departments.

Principal landmarks on the campus include Holladay Hall, the school's first building; the birthplace of Andrew Johnson, 17th president of the United States; Memorial Tower, impressive monument to the State College students who served in World War I; the home of the chancellor; Pullen Hall, named in honor of R. Stanhope Pullen, who donated the land for the original campus; a memorial to the 13 original colonies; and other sites of interest.

State College has more than 25,000 living alumni, many of whom are nationally known for their accomplishments in industry, science, military progress, agriculture, education, and political life. More than 6,000 alumni of the school—most of whom were officers, served in the armed forces during World War II. Over 300 of the service men died in battle during the progress of the war.

The institution maintains a close relationship with its alumni through the College's General Alumni Association, which is headed by President Henry E. Kendall of Raleigh, Class of 1926. H. W. (Pop) Taylor, of Raleigh, Class of 1926, is the executive director of the association.

THE PROSPECTUS

Coach Beattie Feathers will have fewer lettermen, a smaller squad and less overall experience for the 1950 season than in any of his previous six years as head football coach at State. For this reason the outlook is not particularly bright, but is certainly not one of complete despair.

Although the "crying towel" is one of the most overworked of the coaching profession's many prerogatives Feathers can duely justify its use during 1950. The departure of no less than 17 capable lettermen, all of whom were regarded as "regulars" on either the offensive or defensive team, combined with a dearth of replacements from the sophomore ranks, indicates that the "Big Chief" may spend more than one sleepless night this Fall.

In years gone by the Wolfpack under Feathers has always been deep in hulking linemen, strong defensively, but in some respects not the offensive club that supporters might have desired. The new season finds the shoe on the other foot. Instead of a potentially strong defensive club, the Wolfpack this year should be a bit weak on defense, but with redoubled offensive power.

The biggest reason why the Wolfpack should be capable of doing better in 1950 in the point-making column is the presence of three topnotch tailbacks. Ed Mooney, the No. 1 ball-carrier on the squad, proved his worth last year. He gained nearly 1,000 yards on the ground and in the air and NCAA figures rank Mr. Mooney as the nation's 49th offensive player for the 1949 season. Although he kicked only 10 times last year, Mooney came up with a 42.1 yard average. Mooney was ranked 16th in the nation on kickoff returns with an amazing average of 27.3 yards for 12 runbacks.

Two others who are certain to see plenty of action are Sophomores Alex Webster and Ted Potts. Webster, a 197-pounder, who comes from Kearney, N. J. will be State's biggest tailback. He is a great runner and proved it as a freshman. Potts, a 160-pound, five-foot, seven inch stick of dynamite from Alexandria, Va., should be another Mooney. His passing is brilliant and he looks to be an even better punter than the Draper, N. C. senior.

The rest of the backfield will have to hustle to keep step with the likes of Mooney, Potts and Webster, but there is talent at the other positions too. At blocking back, Vitus Kaiser, a Erie, Pa. junior, looks like an excellent replacement for 1949 Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner, Bob Bowlby. Two others, Jonh Tencick, a senior letter-winner, and Ray Barkouskie, a sophomore, will give this position good depth.

Fullback lacks depth, but makes up for it in the presence of dependable Jim O'Rourke of Pittsburgh, who should have his greatest season. Although not a giant-200-pounder, O'Rourke can run as hard with his 180-pounds as any bigger man. Behind O'Rourke are two sophomores who'll need to prove their worth. They are Dick Spritz, a 200-pounder from Clairton, Pa., and Harvey Yeates, a promising sprinter from Buffalo, N. Y.

On the wing, Feathers will be hard pressed to find an offensive replacement for Bill Thompson, who has graduated. Five candidates include only one letterman, George McArthur, who was used mostly on defense last season. The others, Norman Sloan, Jim Smith, and Russell McGraw, have practically no experience, but anyone of the quartet might break into the regular job.

Stiffest problem in the line appears to be at the ends where only Captain Tony Romanowsky is available with experience. Three others, Gene Ferrell, Bernie Allman and Dave Butler, must develop if the Wolfpack flanks are to be adequately defended. Ferrell and Allman have both been on the squad before, although Allman was a blocking back and Ferrell saw no action last year. Butler is a sophomore who shows some promise defensively, but needs offensive improvement.

The tackles should be one of the squad's strong points with Elmer Costa, 1949 All-Southern, and his running-mate, Tom Morse, both returning. Behind these two stalwarts is letterman Fred Davis, two 1949 reserves, Fred Beaver and James Swart and a pair of husky sophomores, Jim Hillman and James Johnson.

The guards will miss the likes of Charlie Musser, Bernie Watts, Jim Byler and Ralph Burnett, all graduated, but two promising lettermen, Vince Bagonis and Walter Schacht are expected to do a bang-up job as their replacement. The rest of the guard contingent boasts three very good sophomores in J. C. Britt, John Nicholson and William Cox. They need experience, but should do a capable job.

At center the Wolfpack can match stars with the best in the Southern Conference with 210-pounder Tom Tofaute of Yorkville, O. back for another season. Tom was honorable mention on at least three All-America squads last year and should be headed for his best year. He'll get some Grade A assistance from John Martin.

The real test for the Wolfpack will lie in manpower. If injuries can be held to a bare minimum State is capable of breaking even in the 10-game schedule which lies ahead. The general spirit on the team this year is due to be excellent. With a break or two the Wolfpack could surprise a lot of the experts.

MEET NORTH CAROLINA STATE'S DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

ROY B. CLOGSTON

ROY B. CLOGSTON
Athletic Director
N. C. State

Under Roy Clogston's guidance during the past 2 years State's athletic program has prospered. His popularity has grown by leaps and bounds and everywhere he has made additional friends for the school's athletic program.

Clogston took over the athletic reins at State on August 1, 1948 after a 20-year tenure as athletic director at St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y. His background includes a degree in physical education from Springfield College and a Master's degree from New York University in physical education. He is 46 years old.

A Navy veteran of World War II, Clogston attained the rank of commander. He served as rehabilitation officer on Guam and other South Pacific bases and directed a far-flung program, which received numerous commendations from higher-ups in Washington.

Of an athletic nature himself, Clogston enjoys golf, tennis and swimming. He's also had extensive coaching experience, having tutored St. Lawrence football teams during his long stay at the Canton, N. Y. school.

Clogston lends a personal interest to the school's athletic program. He is constantly endeavoring to improve facilities in all sports and has been instrumental in expanding the program in general. Recently he was responsible for the addition of soccer to State's intercollegiate schedule and the employment of a coach.

The State athletic director is fast becoming one of the top men in the Southern Conference, thus expanding the reputation he enjoyed in Upper New York State as one of the leading small college athletic directors in the country.

A bachelor, Clogston makes his home in a recently purchased cabin just off Highway 70A. He has the reputation for being a gracious host, performing most of the culinary arts himself.

Clogston is also active in the civic life of the community. He is a member of the Lions Club and Elks Club and on the national scene is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's committee for Physical Education, Health and Recreation.

The Coaching Staff

BEATTIE FEATHERS, Head Coach

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH
BEATTIE FEATHERS
N C State

Very few coaches in the nation claim 15 years of actual football playing experience at the age of 39, but such is the record of North Carolina State's Beattie Feathers, who started out at the age of 15 as an All-State fullback at Bristol High and went on to gain All-America honors at the University of Tennessee and become one of the most valuable players in National Professional football league history.

Feathers' grid career got off to an auspicious start at the age of 15 when he made first-string fullback at Bristol High. For four years he ruled the roost and was called by many people the greatest high school fullback ever produced in the Old Dominion.

His accomplishments include selection four times as All-State Virginia and two seasons as All-Southern high school.

Following the end of his prep career in 1930 he cast his collegiate lot with the University of Tennessee and was first-string tailback on the frosh squad. In 1931 Feathers moved up to the Volunteer varsity and although still in the shadow of the great Gene McEver, Tennessee's all-time All-America, he became one of the hottest prospects in the Southeastern Conference. In 1932 Feathers came into his own. First he made All-Southeastern Conference tailback and then in 1933 came the most valued selection of a football player's career when Feathers was named to the four first team All-America selections.

Feathers' accomplishments at Tennessee are too numerous to mention, His excellent kicking averaged 45 yards in three seasons and his passing was the most feared Tennessee weapon in the Southeastern circuit. But Feathers' forte was as a runner. Such long runs as 92 yards against Kentucky and a 97-yard run against Georgia were among his outstanding feats.

After receiving his degree in Physical Education from Tennessee in June, 1934, Feathers embarked on one of the greatest professional football careers in history with the Chicago Bears. In his freshman season as a pro he gained 1,080 yards from scrimmage on running plays alone, a record which stands today as the best compiled by a single individual. He averaged 9.8 yards per try for the 1934 season, almost a first down on each attempt.

It was only the beginning for the fleet-footed, long distance kicking Feathers. As a running mate to the fabulous Bronco Nagurski, Feathers was literally running amuck among the National League teams. The Bears were winning from all comers and Feathers and Nagurski were doing the punching.

For four years, 1934-35-36 and 37, Feathers remained with the Bears. But with the wane of power at Chicago, Feathers was declared a free agent and was immediately signed to a contract by the Brooklyn Dodgers. During 1938 and 1939 Feathers held down first string positions with the Dodgers. In 1940 he moved to the Green Bay Packers where he finished out his pro career. Injuries had kept him from hitting his peak, but he was always a threat.

Thus in 1941 with 15 years of football behind him, Feathers accepted a position at Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone, N. C., as assistant football coach. When the Mountaineers faltered with a 4-5 record that season Feathers was made head coach.

With the outbreak of war, Appalachian decided to drop football, but it was no time for Feathers to stop. He came to North Carolina State as an assistant to Williams (Doc) Newton in 1943 and was given the job of tutoring the Wolfpack backfield. In 1944 Newton resigned to accept the head coaching position at the University of South Carolina and Feathers was promoted to head coach of the Wolfpack.

The rest is State College history. Feathers' first team won seven games in nine starts. The war drained off most of the eligible football manpower in 1945 and the Wolfpack could do no better than win three games in nine contests. But Feathers bounced right back. In 1946 with a freshman dominated outfit the Wolfpack copped eight victories in 10 games and State got its first bowl bid—a Jan. 1st affair in Jacksonville, Fla., in the Gator Bowl.

In 1947 despite the record of five victories, three losses and one tie, Feathers again saw his Wolfpack football team rated as one of the 20 best clubs in the nation by the annual year-end Associated Press poll of sports writers and radio men. The State team won upset triumphs over Virginia and Wake Forest and held a highly favored Maryland eleven to a scoreless tie. State ranking was 17th in the nation.

Feathers has proven to be one of the most popular mentors in State College history. His amiable personality and his ability to handle men has gained for him a success similar to that which he enjoyed as an All-American footballer at the University of Tennessee and as a great star in the National Football League.

ALBERT ROTELLA, Line Coach

LINE COACH AL ROTELLA
N. C. State

A native of Paterson, N. J., and University of Tennessee alumnus, Rotella joined the State coaching staff a year ago. He is well versed in the Wolfpack style of play and has lent his personal knowledge of the game to those under his guidance. He is married and 28 years old. The Rotella's have one child.

Al started his football career at Paterson High where he played alternately at tackle and guard. Following an auspicious prep school career and being named to several All-State New Jersey teams, Rotella entered Tennessee where he became a star in his own right. Rotella saw three years of service in World War II and returned to Tennessee in 1946 to finish out his eligibility. In 1947 he was an assistant line coach for the Vols.

Line Coach Murray Warmath of Army regards Rotella as one of the coming line mentors in the game. Warmath, who coached Rotella at Tennessee, says, "Al has the unusual ability to get across his personal experience in football to the young men under his guidance and I predict a bright future for him as a coach."

WADE WALKER, Assistant Line Coach

WADE WALKER
N. C. State Line Coach

Wade Walker, one of the greatest linemen ever turned out at the University of Oklahoma by the frank admission of Coach Bud Wilkinson, joined State's football staff with the opening of fall practice Sept. 1. He is a native North Carolinian, hailing from Gastonia.

Termed by Wilkinson "the greatest blocking tackle in modern day Oklahoma football history," Walker's job at State will be two-fold. He'll work with Freshman Coach Jim Gill on the installation of the split T-formation and help out Coach Feathers with varsity line play.

Now 25 years old, the six-foot, 200-pound giant earned practically every honor in the books for a lineman at the University of Oklahoma. He was co-captain of the Sooner teams of 1947 and 1948 and made more first-team All-Americans than any other single lineman in the nation in 1949. The first-team list includes Collier's, Look, Associated Press, NEA Service, Telenews, Bill Stern's MGM team, Cleveland Press, United Press and several others not so prominent.

Walker got his degree in Education from Oklahoma during the summer after the completion of practice teaching assignments. He along with Mrs. Walker and their six months old baby will make their home in Raleigh in the Country Club Home Apartments.

Wade is a close personal friend of Coach Darrall Royal. The two were teammates at Oklahoma and members of the great team of Coach Bud Wilkinson which rang up a string of 21 consecutive football victories.

DARRELL ROYAL, Assistant Backfield Coach

DARRELL ROYAL
N. C. State Backfield Coach

A native of Hollis, Oklahoma, Royal joined the State Wolfpack football staff in June. He is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma where he was an All-America footballer under Coach Bud Wilkinson. Royal quarterbacked the Sooners to victory over Louisiana State in the 1950 Sugar Bowl Classic and is regarded by his former coach as "one of the most adept T-formation quarterbacks I ever coached."

During the 1949 season Royal called the plays for the Sooners and did most of the passing for the team. He connected for an amazing 53.9 per cent and had a string of 76 consecutive completions without an interception from the 1948 game with Texas to the 1949 season's finale against Oklahoma A. & M. Royal also holds the modern Oklahoma record of 32.8 yards per try for each punt return, which was set during the 1948 season. Mr. Royal also holds the modern day Oklahoma record for pass interceptions with 17 during his career. Coach Wilkinson regards Royal as one of the best pass defensive performers ever developed at Oklahoma.

Royal's duties this season will be divided between the State freshmen and the varsity. With the Wolflet yearlings he'll work with Head Coach Jim Gill in teaching the intricacies of the split-T-formation, which will be the new system for all State teams in 1951. On the varsity he'll assist Coach Feathers with backfield coaching chores.

The Royals live at the Country Club Home Apartments just off Oberlin Road in Raleigh. They have two children, a boy and a girl, Mack, three and one-half, and Marian, five.

DICK PEACOCK, Assistant Line Coach

DICK PEACOCK
N. C. State Line Coach

A graduate in Textiles at State, Peacock was named freshman coach of the Wolfpack last August. He is a native of Lexington, N. C., where he was a star prep school center. Peacock performed on college fields for Catawba in 1942 and 1943 and after three years in the Air Corps in World War II transferred to State where he played two seasons at center.

Dick is regarded by Coach Feathers as "a fine addition to our staff, who I'm sure will do a top notch job with our freshmen."

Peacock was State's first full-time freshman coach since 1942. He moves up to the varsity staff this year.

Coach Peacock is married to the former May Pleasants of Raleigh.

THOMAS M. FITZGIBBON, Head Trainer

Former head trainer and track coach at George Washington High, Alexandria, Va., Fitzgibbon was named head trainer at State and track coach on June 22. He brings a brilliant scholastic and collegiate record to his new post.

The 44-year-old Wisconsin native received his early experience under T. C. Jones at Wisconsin and later moved to the University of Toledo where he worked with Dr. C. W. Spears. He holds a BS degree in physical education from Wisconsin.

Fitzgibbon is a veteran of two years in the Army in World War II, serving as an instructor in a medical detachment.

Following the war Fitzgibbon was named to his post at Alexandria, Va., where he turned out some of the most successful track teams in the history of the Virginia High School Athletic Association.

A. E. Doran, Director of Athletics at Alexandria says of Fitzgibbon, "I believe he is the best in the country, bar none. He is a top track coach and the best trainer I've ever worked with."

N. C. State Freshman Coach

A native of Richmond, Missouri, Jim Gill takes over as head freshman football coach at State with the opening of the 1950 season. He joined the athletic staff on June 1.

Coach Gill is a graduate of the University of Missouri where he took an AB in Physical Education. He was a star on the Missouri football team and after his graduation took up a coaching career at the Missouri School of Mines and Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.

After five successful seasons at the School of Mines, Gill moved to Chapel Hill, N. C., where he was an instructor in the Navy program at the University of North Carolina. After his discharge from the Navy, Gill joined the football coaching staff at Carolina as an assistant to Coach Carl Snavely. He remained at Carolina from 1945 through 1949, resigning as assistant line coach to take the freshman coaching position at State.

It will be Coach Gill's task to begin the installation of the split T-formation at State. He'll be assisted by two veteran T-formation stars, Darrell Royal and Wade Walker, former University of Oklahoma All-Americans.

Coach Gill is married and makes his home on Kent Road on Western Boulevard in Raleigh.

WOLFPACK PROFILES

THE ENDS

HART, ED—6-1, 170 lbs. Senior. Tarboro, N. C. Has failed to come up to expectations in his last three seasons as varsity squad member, but might see some action this year. Good pass receiver, but weak on defense.

BUTLER, DAVID—6-1, 180 lbs. Sophomore. Fayetteville, N. C. Likely will be used consistently as offensive performer. Blocks well and good pass receiver. Very aggressive on defense. Likes it rough and tough and despite lack of weight can hit as hard as any lineman on squad. Was regular on 1949 freshman squad. All-State and All-Conference performer at Fayetteville High under Coach Bill Doyle. Son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Butler, 215 Windsor Drive, Fayetteville, N. C. Studying Textiles.

FERRELL, Gene—6-0, 183 lbs. Junior. Raleigh, N. C. Expected to play considerably this season, particularly on defense. Is very good tackler and diagnoses plays well. Seldom gets "sucked in" from his position. Played in only one contest last season, but developed fast in spring drills. Played regular as freshman in 1948. Starred at Needham Broughton High, Raleigh, under Coach Lee Stone. Son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ferrell, 612½ Holden St., Raleigh. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation.

ALLMAN, Bernard—5-11, 180 lbs. Junior. Parkersburg, W. Va. Converted from blocking back to end, Allman is a good bet to be one of the top flankers on the squad. A knee injury a year ago forced him to the sidelines, but after an operation during the summer he is ready to go. Very aggressive and capable of playing either offensive or defensive position. Regular on 1948 freshman team as blocking back. All-State West Virginia under Coach James Scott at Parkersburg High in 1947. Played in the West Virginia North-South all-star game. Son of W. H. Allman, Route 1, Parkersburg. Studying Textiles.

ROMANOWSKY, Tony—6-0, 192 lbs. Senior. Girard, Ohio. Captain of the 1950 squad, Tony has lettered for the past three seasons. He is the most experienced flanker on the team and is expected to play both offense and defense. Excellent pass receiver and rough on defense. Probably will start all 1950 games. One of the team's most dependable men. Can go 60 minutes if necessary. Excellent student. Studying Civil Engineering.

THE GUARDS

NICHOLSON, John—6-0, 190 lbs. Sophomore. Raleigh, N. C. Starred as freshman at State in 1948. Held out of action last season. Probably will be one of the Wolfpack's No. 2 guards. Very fast and aggressive and one of the best blockers on the team. Has great potentialities, but needs more experience. Studying Mechanical Engineering. Excellent student. Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nicholson, 1223 Canterbury Rd., Raleigh, N. C.

COX, William—5-10, 180 lbs. Sophomore. Knoxville, Tenn. Made last year's freshman team as regular and looks like topnotch varsity material. Good blocker and pulls out of line well. Likely will work with Nicholson as second team regulars. Does well on defense. Studying Textiles. Son of Edward L. Cox, 2717 Selma Ave., Knoxville, Tenn.

SCHACHT, Walter—5-9, 185 lbs. Junior. Alexandria, Va. Worked as second team guard last season behind All-Southern Bernie Watts and this year steps into Watts' starting position. Very good tackler and great blocker. One of the most aggressive men on squad. Very fast and tough. Marine Corps veteran. Played prep school ball at George Washington High, Alexandria, Va., under Coaches A. E. Doran and P. R. Mackey. Studying Textiles. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Schacht, Ft. Belvoir, Va.

BAGONIS, Vince—5-10, 195 lbs. Junior. Luzerne, Pa. Earned monogram as sophomore last season and will have the job of replacing All-Southern Charlie Musser at one guard slot this year. Rough and tough, Bagonis also can block and has plenty of speed. Studying Mechanical Engineering. Prepped at Luzerne High under Coach Red Brady. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bagonis, 741 Willard St., Luzerne, Pa.

CALVANO, Ralph—5-9, 190 lbs. Junior. Hawthorne, N. J. Saw little action last year as sophomore, but likely will play more often this season. Is determined defensive man, but lacks speed for pulling out of line. Looks about 5th guard on squad. Studying Electrical Engineering. Navy veteran. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Calvano, 294 Hawthorne Ave., Hawthorne, N. J. Prepped at East Side High, Paterson, N. J., where he was all-conference honorable mention. Oldest man on 1950 squad at 27 years of age.

O'BRYANT, Charles—6-2, 190 lbs. Sophomore. Reidsville, N. C. Saw only little action as freshman and likely will have tough time making varsity team. O'Bryant, however, showed marked improvement during off-season drills and could develop as season progresses. Needs experience, and may get it the hard way. Studying Textiles.

BRITT, James C.—6-2, 200 lbs. Sophomore. Fayetteville, N. C. One of last year's top freshmen, Britt likely will be scrapping Bagonis and Schacht for a starting job on the varsity this season. Had a knee injury as a frosh lineman, but has already overcome this handicap and looks like will develop into one of the finest linemen in State College history. Is very aggressive and likes it rough and tough. Has weight and power to be a great lineman. Made All-Southern at Fayetteville High in 1948 under Coach Bill Dole. Studying Textiles. Son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Britt, 1025 Person Street, Fayetteville, N. C.

THE TACKLES

DAVIS, Fred—6-0, 200 lbs. Senior. Rocky Mount, N. C. A two-letter man, Fred has played both tackle and guard during his three years on the Wolf-pack. Likely will be the leading candidate for a starting job this season along with Elmer Costa and Tom Morse, the two other monogram holders. Vicious tackler and good blocker, Fred is one of the most spirited performers on the team. Studying Civil Engineering and is a top student. Played prep school ball under Coach Joe Caruso at Rocky Mount. Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Davis, 1134 Sycamore St., Rocky Mount, N. C.

HILLMAN, James—6-3, 235 lbs. Sophomore. Kane, Pa. Starred on frosh team last year and likely will play important role on varsity this season. Has weight and speed to become valuable defensive performer. Navy veteran. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Son of Mrs. W. Daud, 403 Westmore Road, Kane, Pa.

SWART, William—6-2, 205 lbs. Junior. Wilmington, N. C. Has been on Jayvee squad for the past two seasons, but is expected to blossom forth into regular this year. Has speed and weight to become valuable asset in line. Blocks well and likes it rough and tough. Is especially good on defense. Prepped under Coach Leon Brogden at New Hanover High, Wilmington. Studying Agriculture. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Dirk Swart, P. O. Box 838, Wilmington, N. C.

COSTA, Elmer—6-1, 225 lbs. Junior. Haledon, N. J. One of the finest linemen ever turned out at State. Has earned two monograms. Can block and tackle with the best in the South. Has amazing speed for big man. Selected Associated Press "Sophomore of the Week" in Southern Conference last year following great performance against University of Maryland. Made 2nd team All-Southern last year and five All-America honorable mention listings. Navy veteran. Was all-conference and all-state New Jersey as high school star in Paterson, N. J. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Costa, 8 Geyer St., Haledon, N. J.

BEAVER, Fred—6-1, 195 lbs. Junior. Asheville, N. C. Has seen little action during his previous two years at State, but has developed fast, particularly during the last spring drills. It is likely that Fred will be one of Coach Feathers' leading tackle candidates this season and probably will be Costa's No. 1 understudy. Studying Textile Manufacturing. Made All-State North Carolina in 1947 at Lee H. Edwards High, Asheville. Son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Beaver, 109 Michigan Ave., Asheville. Played in East-West Shrine Bowl game at Charlotte, N. C.

JOHNSON, James—6-1, 215 lbs. Sophomore. Knoxville, Tenn. Starred on 1949 frosh team and is one of the better newcomers to the Wolfpack varsity. Moves well and tackles hard. Very aggressive. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Plans coaching career after graduation. Prepped at Knoxville High under Coach Sam Jones. Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson, 1811 Euclid Ave., Knoxville, Tenn.

MORSE, Tom—6-0, 202 lbs. Junior. Pittsburgh, Pa. Has earned two previous letters at tackle and is a cinch to be starter this season, barring injuries. Likes it rough and is one of the most consistent performers on the team. Veteran of Army Airborne unit in World War II. Prepped at Carrick High, Pittsburgh, Pa. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Should be one of the best tackles in Southern Conference this year. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Morse, 877 Rivermont Drive, Pittsburgh, Pa.

THE CENTERS

MARTIN, John—6-2, 195 lbs. Senior. Larksville, Pa. Rough and rugged characterizes Martin, who has earned two monograms at center for the Wolfpack. Used almost exclusively on defense, he is great line backer and will share offensive chores with Tom Tofaute. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Prepped at Larksville High under Coach Mike Shimko. Son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Martin, 85 Brown Street, Larksville, Pa. All-Scholastic in 1947.

TAILBACK ED MOONEY
N. C. State

HARDING, John—6-0, 190 lbs. Senior. Kirklin, Ind. Although he has failed to earn a letter in three previous years on the squad, Harding will be counted on as a leading reserve this season. Good tackler and line backer. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Married. Army veteran with two children.

TOFAUTE, Tom—6-2, 205 lbs. Junior. Yorkville, Ohio. Probably one of the best centers in the South, Tofaute can do a top notch job on either offense or defense. As a line backer he has few peers on defense and his offensive blocking and ball-snapping rank with the best. Last season he was selected to several all-star teams, including honorable mention All-America by the United Press. Tom is fast and covers punts well. Marine Corps veteran. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation and hopes to go into coaching field after graduation. Has earned two monograms at State. Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tofaute, 108 Garden Ave., Yorkville, Ohio.

THE TAILBACKS

MOONEY, Ed—5-10, 170 lbs. Senior. Draper, N. C. Here's the kid who'll be at the throttle of State's offense this season. Past experience proves he's one of the best. NCAA statistics rank Mooney as the nation's 16th top kickoff return man last year when he lugged back 12 returns for 327 yards for an amazing average of 27.3 per try. As a punter "Little Ed" had an average of 42.1 yards for 10 punts. Mooney's overall offensive play was terrific. He was among the nation's 50 leading ball-carriers in 1949 although he played for a team which won only three times in 10 games. On 201 plays "Scooter" gained 509 yards rushing and passed for another 428 yards. He was responsible for seven touchdowns and amassed an offensive total of 937 yards, or nearly five yards for each time he handled the pigskin. Mooney has earned two previous monograms at State and should be headed for his greatest season this year. Barring injury the little Draper, N. C., senior may be one of the nation's best backs in 1950. As a high school star at Draper, N. C., he scored more than 300 points. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Enrolled in advanced R.O.T.C. training unit at State.

POTTS, Edward O. (Ted)—5-9. 175 lbs. Sophomore. Alexandria, Va. A fireball last year as a freshman, Potts had some phenomenal kicking averages of 54, 52 and 51 yards in three contests as well as doing some better than average running and passing. Although he's small, Potts is built like a tank, rugged and tough. As prep schooler at George Washington High in Alexandria he ran away with all the honors, being selected All-Metropolitan (Washington, D. C.) All-State Virginia, All-Northern Virginia and All-Surburban Washington. Studying Industrial Engineering at State. Son of Edward O. Potts, 438 E. Nelson St., Alexandria, Va.

WEBSTER, Alex—6-2. 195 lbs. Sophomore. Kearney, N. J. Powerful runner, Webster was a star last year as a freshman and looks like bigtime varsity material. Is the biggest tailback candidate ever to attend State, but despite size has speed to go with it. Under Coach Arthur Arguar at Kearney High, Webster made All-State and All-Metropolitian. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Son of Mrs. Rena Webster, 163 Wilson Ave., Kearney, N. J. State's 1950 opponents will see plenty of this lad before the season is over.

THE FULLBACKS

O'ROURKE, Jim—6-0. 180 lbs. Junior. Pittsburgh, Pa. Hard-driving Jim will be the workhorse of the Wolfpack this season. Already established as a great defensive player, O'Rourke will be seen more of as a ball-carrier this season. He's Feathers' No. 1 fullback and looks like one of the best. Has earned two previous monograms at State. Studying Civil Engineering. Prepped at Central Catholic High in Pittsburgh, Pa. Army veteran. Son of Mrs. Mary E. O'Rourke.

YEATES, Harvey—6-0. 198 lbs. Sophomore. Buffalo, N. Y. Although he played center as a freshman, Yeates has been shifted to fullback for his varsity assignment. In spring practice looked very much the part of a hard-charging line-plunger and much is expected of him this season. Is fast enough to do the 100-yard dash in 10.3 seconds and won 3rd place in North Carolina Freshman track meet last year. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Prepped at Bennett High, Buffalo, N. Y. under Coach Fred Braunx where he was All-State fullback. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor G. Yeates, 268 North Park Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.

SPRITZ, Richard—6-1. 190 lbs. Sophomore. Clairton, Pa. Although he failed to impress as a freshman back, Spritz has shown improvement in off-season practice. Likely will be 3rd man at plunging spot and is expected to see action frequently. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Prepped at Clairton High under Coach H. G. Wilkinson. Selected All-Valley and W.P.I.A.L. Honorable Mention. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Spritz, 555 Farnsworth St., Clairton, Pa.

THE BLOCKING BACKS

BARKOUSKIE, Ray—6-0. 190 lbs. Sophomore. Kulpmont, Pa. Hard-hitting Ray looks like one of the best sophomores on the current squad. Has excellent timing on blocks and is determined. Probably will be No. 2 man at his position and likely will head offensive unit. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Prepped at Franklin D. Roosevelt High, Kulmont, Pa. under Coach Bob Magaleski. Son of Mr. Benjamin Barkouskie, 831 Spruce St., Kulmont, Pa.

TENCICK, John—5-10. 185 lbs. Senior. New York City, N. Y. Veteran of two previous seasons, Tencick has plenty of experience with a pair of letters to his credit. Although he has stood in the shadow of the great blocker, Bob Bowlby, twice Jacobs' Blocking Trophy winner, Tencick has developed rapidly. Studying Industrial and Rural Recreation. Excellent student. Son of Mrs. Antonia Tencick, 75 Fort Washington Ave., New York 32, N. Y.

KAISER, Vitus—5-11. 185 lbs. Junior. Erie, Pa. Although he started off as a freshman tailback two years ago, Kaiser has developed into one of the best blocking backs ever to don a uniform at State. He is likely successor to Bob Bowlby as team's No. 1 blocker and should be one of the leading candidates for the Jacobs Blocking Trophy this year. There are few men in the conference who can do the offensive blocking job as well as Kaiser. Studying Industrial and Rural Recreation. Prepped at Cathedral High, Erie, Pa., under Coach James Sowel. Played in two all-star games and was All-City tailback. Son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kaiser, 2617 Cherry St., Erie, Pa.

THE WINGBACKS

SMITH, Jimmy—5-8. 170 lbs. Junior. Miami, Fla. Played briefly on varsity squad in 1948, but because of scholastic difficulties did not compete last season. Smith is one of the most rugged defensive men for his size in the Southern Conference and may develop into an offensive threat. Studying Mechanical Engineering. Prepped at Miami Senior High under Coach George Trogden. Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith, 1540 S.W. 13th St., Miami, Fla.

McARTHUR, George—5-11. 175 lbs. Junior. Paterson, N. J. Played mostly on defense last season, but is being groomed as ball-carrier this season. Good pass defense man and made seven interceptions in 1949. Prepped at Eastside High, Paterson, N. J. under Coach Rumana. Made all-conference, all-state and all-metropolitan. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Son of Mr. and Mrs. George McArthur, 829 E. 24th St., Paterson, N. J. Only letterman available at wingback position.

McGRAW, Russell—5-11. 180 lbs. Sophomore. Elmsford, N. Y. One of the most determined men on squad. Has speed and durability and only needs experience to become top man. Very fine defensive performer and good pass receiver on offense. Prepped at Alexander Hamilton High, Elmsford, N. Y., and was selected Most Athletic personality in school his senior year. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Son of Mr. and Mrs. James McGraw, 170 Central Avenue, Elmsford, N. Y.

SLOAN, Norman—6-0. 180 lbs. Senior. Indianapolis, Ind. Former basketball player under Coach Everett Case, Sloan gave up the hardwood sport to try his hand on the gridiron two years ago. Has yet to make the grade, but could see action this season. Has speed, but needs finesse to become good ball-carrier. Studying Rural and Industrial Recreation. Married. Navy veteran.

RIDDICK STADIUM

Riddick Stadium, present site of North Carolina State's home football contests, was started in 1907 as an athletic field and the first football contest was played on Sept. 30, 1907 between State and Randolph-Macon.

In 1912 the stadium received its present name when the senior class voted to name the field in honor of Professor W. C. Riddick, who is regarded as the father of athletics at North Carolina State.

Construction of the concrete stands on the west side was begun in the summer of 1916 and during that year football contests were held at Raleigh with Davidson and Wake Forest.

In 1928 the stadium was enlarged and the east stands were completed. The field house and present lighting system were completed during the 1938-39 seasons.

Many changes have taken place in the physical field as it now exists. Once it was level with surrounding ground, but grading and new construction has lowered the present field until it is approximately eight to ten feet below the level of the surrounding earth.

During recent years the large crowds attending contests in Riddick Stadium have forced athletic officials to increase the seating capacity by adding extra bleachers at both ends of the playing field. The structure, which once could care for only 5,000 persons in 1916 can now accommodate a gathering of about 20,000 people.
